CAPT. ECKART SPOKE AT ROTARY LUNCHEON

Captain Walter Eckart of the Indiana State Police addressed the Greencastle Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon on Wednesday. He was accompanied by Sergeant Frank Gray of the Putnamville barracks.

In his talk, Capt. Eckart, brought out the duties of the state police in the protection of the life and property of Indiana residents and discussed some interesting sidelights of his work.

Walter Ballard, newly elected president of the Greencastle Club, has been named as a delegate to the Rotary International convention which will be held in Denver, Colo. the middle of this month. Ernest Collins and Dr. DeWan Killinger have been named as alternate delegates.

The Rotary Club has approved the purchase of new pieces of furniture for the Putnam County Nurses Home. At the time of the building of the home, the club contributed generously in furnishing it, and the gift that has just been approved will supplement the original gift.

Musical entertainment was furnished by Misses Jane Purcell, Alice Sheridan, Marcia Hamilton and Burrell Fisher.

Rainfall Total Now 6.02 Inches

1.14 INCHES OF WATER FELL HERE DURING PAST
24 HOURS

The 1.14 inches of rainfall for the 24-hour period ending at 7 o'clock this morning brought the total up to 6.02 inches since noon of last Saturday. At times the rain fell faster than the soil could absorb it, and the run off raised Putnam county streams considerably.

At the pumping plant of the Greencastle water works, located on Big Walnut creek, this morning, it was reported: "The creek was up a couple of feet yesterday but has gone down a foot or more since then."

The rise in Big Walnut was due, not to the rainfall in the immediate vicinity of Greencastle but to that northeast of the city, possibly in Doone county, where the stream has its headquarters. The water in the streams is muddy, indicating much soil has been washed off of plowed fields, where it is needed much worse than in the stream bed or out on the alluvial bottom lands farther down the stream's course.

The weather indications do not hold out much encouragement for a let-up in the showers.

Herbert Boswell, trustee of Madison township, said today that Leatherman and Jones branches, northwest of Greencastle and emptying

FRANCE WILL HAVE NAZI "COOPERATION"

LONDON, June 4.—(UP)—Well-informed quarters, calling the decision of the Vichy government to "defend the French empire" the gravest since France's request for an armistice, charged today that French leaders were trying to provide Germany with an excuse to march into Syria.

BERLIN, June 4.—(UP)—Germany will "cooperate" fully with France in opposing a British attack on Syria, even to relaxing the armistice terms to enable France to defend its colonial territory with its armed forces including the French fleet, Nazis indicated today.

Diplomatic quarters expected belief that Adolf Hitler and Vice Premier Jean Francois Darlan of France had discussed the French empire defense situation at their recent conference and that French-German talks might have their first effect if Britain moved against French territory.

German informants denied reports German troops were in Syria. They attributed such reports to Britain and expressed belief that they were disseminated to provide a pretext for operations against Syria.

Informants said it appeared that the Vichy government was determined to defend its territory against any British "provocation."

They also said that Marshal Henri Philippe Petain, Darlan and Gen. Charles Hutzinger, Vichy war minister, were held in "high respect" here.

NAVAL ATTACHE USES BAYONET TO KILL SELF

KERRY, Ireland, June 4.—(UP)—Lieut. Comdr. Walter R. Jones, 43, assistant United States naval attache in London and former commander of President Roosevelt's yacht Potomac, stabbed himself to death with a bayonet aboard a British warship anchored here while "temporarily insane," it was announced today.

An inquest aboard the ship disclosed that Jones had secluded himself in his cabin and stabbed himself in the heart Monday evening. He died in a few minutes.

Authorities said he had suffered a nervous breakdown, but had refused to see a doctor or take a rest. He had been stationed in Londonderry about a week.

The boys said they had been playing with a box of matches in the loft of a barn adjacent to the yards. The fire started in the barn. Authorities said no action would be taken.

Amendments To Bill Suggested

"DRAFT PROPERTY" POWERS FOR PRESIDENT UNDER FIRE IN CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, June 4.—(UP)— Two amendments to the administration's request for "draft property" powers for President Roosevelt were suggested today. One would require Congress to ratify the existence of a national emergency before private property could be requisitioned; the other would limit the time such property could be held.

Despite reports that President Roosevelt would accept any "reasonable modifications," the compromise offers failed immediately to satisfy all congressional opponents. Charges of "dictatorship—raw and unashamed" still came from those who believed the bill was too broad for improvement by amendment. They insisted that it should be killed.

The fate of the bill appeared to be uncertain. The request for the broad powers has had the House in an uproar for two days. Another signal of trouble was the failure of administration supporters to comment and the admission of some administration stalwarts that they thought the bill "too sweeping."

Congressional leaders who conferred with the President yesterday indicated that the War Department in offering the bill had acted without the President's final approval. Mr.
Roosevelt admitted at his press conference that he had not read the text of the bill, although he indicated that he approved of it in principle.

ing Goods department of Montgomery Ward & Co. or at the park.

Former German Kaiser Dies In Exile At Doorn, Holland; World Figure For 30 Years

War Flashes

LONDON, June 4.—(UP)—British forces today regained control of the important Mosul oilfields in Iraq, placing the middle eastern command in a powerful position to deal with Nazi threats in Syria.

A Beirut, Syria, dispatch said today that a British bombing plane dropped four bombs yesterday on the Shell Oil Co. depot at Beirut. Slight ma-tive was wounded, the dispatch said.

CHURCHILL TO BE SUBJECTED TO QUESTIONS

PARLIAMENT WILL DEMAND
REASONS FOR BRITISH DE-FEAT IN CRETE

MEMBERS MAKE CHARGES

Assertions Of Lack Of Foresight Heard; Prime Minister Faces Barrage Of Questions

LONDON, June 4.—(UP)—Parliamentary members of all parties are getting ready to subject Prime Minister Winston Churchill to the most searching questions since he formed his government, determined to learn why the Germans knocked out of the British imperial forces in Crete so quickly, it was indicated today.

Members were charging that lack of foresight, not merely lack of weapons or men, caused the defeat and that if Crete had fallen so easily it might be better to give up Cyprus than to try to defend it.

Behind their criticism was the thought that the Cretan campaign revealed methods which the Germans would use in any attempt to invade this country.

It was believed in parliamentary quarters that there might be a demand for a full dress debate in which members might criticize the government and military leaders.

Churchill had said that Crete would be defended to the death. But it was charged now that the British intelligence service had given ample warning that the Germans were preparing to attack and that the commanding officers on the spot did nothing.

It was charged that the British imperial forces did nothing in six months to develop air fields in Greece, for instance, but that the Germans had made new air fields within three weeks of their occupation.

It was charged that there was no attempt to mine Cretan fields so that the Germans could not use them.

Newspapers said that the British people were tired of being asked to cheer a series of masterly retreats, and it was plain to Americans here that many Britons were tired of being told that their troops were superior man to man against the Germans but lacked adequate equipment.

Some persons wondered how well Britain's air fields were protected against attack by German planes and parachute troops. They wanted to make sure that there were adequate where their vegetable garden will be the principal attraction.

EX-EMPEROR WAS 82 YEARS OLD; FLED GERMANY IN NOVEMBER 1918

BERLIN, June 4.—(UP)—Former Kaiser Wilhelm II, war lord of the last war and a world figure for 30 years until he fled Germany Nov. 10 1918, died at 11:30 today in lonely exile at Doorn House, Doorn, Holland, the official German news agency announced in an Amsterdam dispatch.

Wilhelm, gradually weakening with age, had remained at Doorn House, his refuge for many years, during the German invasion of Holland.
Adolf Hitler had ordered German troops to skirt his estate widely, in order not to disturb him, and after the German conquest Hitler had offered Wilhelm the opportunity to return to Germany and occupy any of the Hohenzollern castles he chose.
But the former emperor had elected to remain in complete retirement at Doorn.

It was reported that before the German invasion Great Britain had secretly offered Wilhelm a refuge in Britain and that he replied angrily that he never would go to Britain except with a conquering German army.

Wilhelm's last days were quiet. His routine was largely the same as it had been during the earlier days of his long exile. He maintained his little court with the Princess Hermine of Sconnaich-Carolath, whom he married Nov. 5, 1922. His first wife the empress Augusta Victoria, had died April 5, 1921.

Wilhelm died at 11:30 a. m. (5:30 a. m. EDT), the agency announced.

It was disclosed last week that Wilhelm had been failing rapidly. He contracted a cold. Then an intestinal disorder set in and his condition became alarming. Members of his family were called and they spent the Whitsun week-end with him.

So stoutly had Wilhelm fought his ailments, however, that his physicians believed he had passed the crisis and would recover. Most members of the family returned to Germany yesterday.

During the night Wilhelm suffered embolism of the lung and death followed.

The former kaiser will be buried in exile.

The official German news agency said the head of the royal house of Hohenzollern would be buried Monday in the chapel of Doorn Castle, where he had lived almost since the day he had fled Germany Nov. 10, 1918, a day before the World War armistice.

At the request of the ex-kaiser, whom a well-informed Nazi described as being the "representative of an important period of German history" although he was not in recent years "a German personality," DNB said, only the closest members of the royal family will attend the funeral.

During the later years of his exile he had expressed a wish to be buried on German soil—either at the White Gallery in Potsdam, where Frederick the Great lies, or near the ancestral castle at the village of Zollern.

It was believed that representatives of Adolf Hitler would attend the funeral and that wreaths would be sent by the government.

"In our human sorrow," the newspaper Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung commented, "we Germans find satisfaction in the fact that it was granted to the last German kaiser of the second Reich in his 83rd year that he be the witness of a new revival, which is assured of completion with
